Recovered Stolen Food Trailer / Arrest

(Charleston County, SC) On April 5, 2018 Sheriff's Detectives located numerous stolen items at an address on Johns Island. During the course of an investigation, detectives located the "Wraps Around the World" food trailer, which was stolen from a West Ashley parking lot on March 27, 2018. The food trailer is valued at approximately $30,000.

In addition to the food trailer, detectives also located:

- a stolen boom lift (approximate value $15,000), reported stolen through the Charleston Police Department
- a stolen Sea Pro boat, motor and trailer (approximate value $20,000), reported stolen through the Charleston Police Department
- a stolen U-Haul car-hauling trailer (approximate value $6,000), reported stolen through the North Myrtle Beach Police department
- a stolen utility trailer (approximate value $1,500), reported stolen through the Charleston County Sheriff's Office

On April 10, 2018, suspect Christopher John Barwick, 41 yrs old, was arrested for possession of the stolen items. He is currently detained at the Sheriff Al Cannon Detention Center awaiting a bond hearing. Anybody with information on this case is asked to call Detective Michael Thompson at (843) 529-6202 or Crime Stoppers of the Lowcountry at (843) 554-1111.
