Deputies Arrest Subject for Assault and Resisting Arrest

(Charleston, SC) On July 3, 2019, just after 1:00 a.m., Charleston County sheriff's deputies responded to a call about a suspicious person in the 500 block of Flint Street, on James Island. The caller reported that an unknown male subject initially tried to use a key to enter the caller's residence and that the subject was now laying down on his front porch. Deputies arrived and attempted to communicate with the subject, at which point they realized that he was highly intoxicated. They eventually woke the subject up and questioned him about his status. The subject was uncooperative and physically aggressive towards deputies. An altercation occurred, at which point deputies resorted to deploying a taser to subdue the subject. He was placed into custody. Deputies later identified the subject as an off-duty trooper with the SC Highway Patrol. He was transported to the Sheriff Al Cannon Detention Center.
