Deputies arrest man in string of 2020 assaults

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2022

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – A man was extradited to Charleston County this week to face charges from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office in connection with a string of attacks two years ago in a single community.

Carlos Josue Caban, 41, was being held in a New Jersey jail on charges there before CCSO deputies took him into custody Tuesday and transported him to the Al Cannon Detention Center. He faced a bond hearing Wednesday morning.

Caban faces seven charges in three incidents within a week of each other in April 2020 near the Sherwood Mobile Home Park at 2215 Hayne St. in the North Charleston area.

- He is charged with attempted murder and possession of a firearm in a violent crime in an April 14, 2020, shooting. Detectives gathered information showing Caban had followed the victim into a wooded area near the mobile home park and accused the man of stealing bicycles before shooting him in the leg.
- Caban faces counts of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, pointing and presenting a firearm, and possession of a firearm in a violent crime in an April 21, 2020, assault. Evidence showed that Caban confronted the victim at a mobile home and accused the man of stealing clothes before repeatedly punching him and pointing a gun at him.
- Caban also faces charges of attempted murder and possession of a firearm in a violent crime in a shooting hours later on April 21, 2020. In that shooting, deputies' investigation showed that Caban had gone to a mobile home and gotten into an argument with the victim before pulling out a handgun and shooting the man in the elbow.
