NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Charleston County deputies are investigating the circumstances that led to three people being shot Friday night near a James Island home.

Patrol units from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded to the report of a shooting after 10:30 p.m. at 1961 Central Park Road near Riverland Drive. At the scene, deputies found three people suffering gunshot wounds. Deputies applied a tourniquet to one of the victims. Two men and a woman were transported to MUSC for treatment of their injuries, which were not considered life-threatening.

Deputies and responding detectives interviewed witnesses and victims, and they determined that someone outside the home had opened fire, hitting the three people. Investigators found numerous shell casings in the road and nearby.
