CCSO apprehends man in connection to 2023 Adams Run murder

2023-010006

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, June 11, 2024

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Charleston County Sheriff's Office arrested Deandre Antuan Cochran, 33, of Adams Run, in connection to a fatal shooting that occurred in August of 2023. Cochran is charged with Murder and Possession of a Weapon During the Commission of a Violent Crime.

The Charleston County Sheriff's Office took over the initial investigation of the fatal shooting that was reported at the 7400 block of Highway 162 on August 8, 2023. Working with Colleton County Sheriff's Office, it was determined that the shooting took place in Charleston County Sheriff's Office jurisdiction.

On Friday, February 2, 2024, Cochran was apprehended in Jacksonville, Florida after law enforcement received a call about an individual who was trespassing. He was lodged on hold for Charleston County Sheriff's Office, along with being charged locally in Jacksonville on separate offenses. The murder warrant from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office was served upon the adjudication of the Florida charges.

On Wednesday, June 5, 2024, Cochran cleared his charges in Jacksonville and signed his waiver of extradition to return to South Carolina. He was taken into custody and transported.

He is currently being held in the Sheriff AI Cannon Detention Center. Booking photos can be found online at <https://inmatesearch.charlestoncounty.org/>.
