CCSO responds to county vehicle collision

2024-010448

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, September 4, 2024

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Deputies with the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded to Savannah Highway and Hughes Road in Charleston shortly before 6:30 a.m. on Tuesday, September 3, 2024, for reports of a county vehicle collision with injuries.

A Charleston County EMS unit was traveling northbound on Savannah Highway when a car attempted to cross over Savannah Highway from Hughes Road. The car failed to yield to the right-of-way, causing the county EMS unit to hit the side of the car. A third vehicle, a Mack tractor, was hit when the car and the EMS unit were coming to a final stop. The EMS unit was not transporting any patients at the time of the collision, nor were lights and sirens being used.

The driver of the car hit was transported to the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) with life-threatening injuries. No other injuries were reported.

The CCSO Traffic Unit will continue to investigate the collision.
