Hanahan man charged after separate pursuits with multiple agencies

2024-012732

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, October 24, 2024

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Deputies with the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded to the 1700 block of Ashley River Road in Charleston on Wednesday, October 24, 2024, just after 12:30 p.m. in reference to an alleged harassment complaint.

Upon arrival, deputies spoke with Anthony Karron Washington, 39, of Hanahan, who stated he believed he was being harassed and stalked by a technician that worked on his residence within the last year. After taking the report and interviewing multiple parties involved, deputies discovered Washington was driving with a suspended license. Washington was advised to step out of the vehicle and that he was under arrest, in which he resisted and drove off. A short pursuit ensued down Ashley River Road before it was canceled.

A short time later, the North Charleston Police Department located him after a BOLO was sent to surrounding agencies. As NCPD officials have stated, their officers initiated a traffic stop and another pursuit ensued. Washington was later apprehended by an NCPD K-9.

Enclosed in this release is the incident report for the Charleston County portion of this incident.

Washington was booked at the Sheriff Al Cannon Detention Center. Between the two agencies, he is being charged with two counts of Failure to Stop for Blue Lights, Resisting Arrest, Assaulting a Police Officer while Resisting Arrest, Possession of Cocaine, Hit and Run with Minor Personal Injury, Hit and Run with Property Damage, Driving with a Suspended License, and Reckless Driving.
